de Aryan Not Re-Indicted at Present, Yet

Biddle Says de Aryan "Under Investigation"

EDITOR STILL UNDER $1,000 BOND

By C. Leon de Aryan

On Sunday afternoon, Jan. 2, I listened to the announcements of Drew Pearson and Walter Winchell who stated that the "34 Nazi conspirators" would be re-indicted a third time to be brought to trial in Washington, D. C. Of course I prepared myself for the jolt to come, but just the same slept like a log. Once I surrendered myself in my mind and attitude to the inevitable in this war for the four freedoms in Washington, D. C., I was back in that state that carried me through during my last incarceration. "Father, thy Will be done!" and who am I to say, nay?

On Monday morning I contacted the U. S. Commissioner as well as the FBI office and the U. S. Marshall and arranged to give myself up in the office of Commissioner Baird as soon as we had confirmation of the Grand Jury's naming me in the third indictment. The FBI and the Marshal would have a dickens of a time locating me since I am roaming all over creation and never know from day to day where I could be found since my territory at present takes in all of California, as you must have noticed recently. All three offices agreed to my voluntary surrender, and then I went about preparing to fight the new indictment and any raise in bail bond that might accompany it.

In the afternoon I went to the AP office of the Union-Tribune to find out what the wires said about the new indictment. There I discovered that I and eleven others previously indicted were left out this time. But this was qualified by Attorney General Biddle's statement that we were still " being investigated" and I had received word from our BROOM correspondent in Washington that the Grand Jury's term was prolonged, so they could file additional indictments.

Of course, I felt greatly relieved that I need not present myself immediately in Washington and can straighten out some matters locally for the time being.

The reason that I was not indicted this time is not because they love me so much but because the charge in the new indictment has been "realigned" to allege that the "conspirators" for the last three years were engaged in "a Conspiracy to aid in the establishment of a nationalist (Nazi) form of government in the United States".

This new charge would be even more preposterous than the previous one that I had conspired in the city of Washington, D. C., to demoralize the armed forces and incite them to mutiny, by responding to a request from one of Biddle's stooges, who procured two copies of THE BROOM by paying for them in advance through the mails. To claim that I intended to "demoralize the armed forces" might appear logical to people who know me as a Christian Pacifist and might assume that I lost my head and preached passive resistance to the armed troops. But nobody would believe in San Diego that I ever joined hands with the Nazis to establish their type of government here. Mr. Biddle has the letters in his files written by District Attorney Thomas Whelan; Joe Sefton, Jr., who wrote that I was "incorruptible"; Superior Court Judge Edward J. Kelly; Coroner Chester Gunn; Municipal Court Judges Shell, Daney; Assemblyman Paul Richie and of the Manager of radio station KGB, Sid Fuller, where I took part in a radio forum; all of them vouching for my integrity. These letters merely voice what every honest San Diegan knows in his heart to be true. Naturally in this new charge the prosecution would have ruined its chance of conviction had they included such anti-Socialist and extreme individualist like myself. But to keep me terrorized, the information was given out that I am still "under investigation" and might be indicted any time.

Much good does that do to my persecutors. Whenever I am to be terrorized the effect is the opposite. And perhaps my persecutors took even that into consideration, to egg me on "to shoot my mouth off" and get myself "into trouble". But they miscalculated there, too. A man who follows a definite line of procedure does not have to fear "going off the track". Time and again I stated the fact that I am following the principle of Christian Service and thus am safely guided in what I say and do. It cannot but reflect honorably upon me and the more I am goaded the stronger is my language that nobody can mistake. It is the best method of smoking out my persecutors and instead of my "biting" on their bait, they bite on mine. And whatever they do to me comes out to my advantage in the long run. This is the promise of the Christ and I bank on HIM and recognize no other master or commander-in-chief over me.

The two previous indictments have not yet been dismissed even though more than a year has elapsed since they were rendered and it is unconstitutional to terrorize a citizen by refusing to bring him honestly to trial so he could clear himself. But what can we expect in these days of the double deal when even the new deal is confessedly out of date, for it was never new; it was used by all the tyrants since history records them, to produce strife so they could pounce on a disrupted and confused people to charge them with crimes that existed only in the minds of the prosecutors. And the people in their confusion were wondering whether they had broken the law, after all. But there was no law, only the caprice of the tyrants.

Of all the idiotic nonsense, the most stupid one is to charge Elizabeth Dilling with conspiracy to establish a Nazi government in the U. S. A. Evidently whom the gods wish to destroy they first make mad. This charge could hold water only in the case that the U. S. A. is regarded to be a Jewish satrapy. In that case, of course, Elizabeth Dilling would advocate a change in government administration, but the change would be back to the Republic of the Founding Fathers. Mrs. Dilling is zealously, and perhaps even fanatically, opposed to a Jewish-Red regime in our Roosevelt administration, but by no stretch of the imagination could we consider this to be "seditious" to the United States of America. Not yet!

Why de Aryan was Not Indicted

NOT ON NAZI PAYROLL

You may be interested in learning that the Department of Justice is happily rubbing its hands over recently unearthed exclusive evidence which leaves no doubt about what everyone has known all along, that the Jew-baiters, who have been howling their heads off for Hitler, received direct financial aid from Berlin. The cases against some of the thirty-three under Federal indictment for sedition will be dismissed because of the howl that might be raised by the American Civil Liberties Union and others who approve of free speech even if it is of the variety that spells death to democracy. Some of the indictments, however, are foolproof, because they comprise a who's who of the Nazi payroll.—B'nai B'rith Messenger.

—B—

HOW IT FEELS

I knew I was under a terrific strain, but I did not really know how bad it was. In fact I have not been myself, even though I walked about, met people and attended to business.

That's the way the boys under fire must be. Ernie Pyle describes it. All feeling finally leaves and one walks about in a nightmare.

Now that the 3rd indictment did not materialize and the B'nai B'rith Messenger carries the columnist story that those who could not be proven to have been in Nazi pay were left out, the load is lifting. And as I begin to see daylight, for I had been set for a series of persecutions for the duration, now I realize what a terrific strain I have been laboring under.

But I never had the slightest notion of giving in. I had accepted the duty and functions of a free press and it was going to be free, exactly as I feel and think, that is how I was conducting this paper, an American paper, not one that appeases the Jews, the Communists, the labor racketeers and the new dealers. We need never appease our enemies when they start destroying our form of government and making hash of our Constitution. The only thing we can do is go down with the liberties we exercise, fighting, with one's boots on.

Well, they could not keep me down!

GRAND JURY TERM EXTENDED

Dear Mr. de Aryan:

I received your wire this morning.

The term of the Special Grand Jury has been extended to include the January term of Court which begins tomorrow (Jan. 4) and continues until the first Tuesday in April.

Should an indictment be returned in your case I shall, of course, be glad to do what I can with reference to the question of bond. However, from the fact that the Government has asked an extension of the term of service it would appear it may be sometime before an indictment is returned, if one is returned.

Yours very truly,
JOHN D. SADLER,
Washington, D. C.

30 Indicted as "Nazi" Plotters

WASHINGTON— A realignment of the Government's "mass sedition" case was recorded in the announcement by Attorney General Francis Biddle that a Federal grand jury here had returned a new indictment charging 28 men and two women "with a conspiracy to aid in the establishment of a national Socialist form of government in the United States".

In announcing the new indictments by the grand jury, Attorney General Biddle emphasized that the Department of Justice is continuing the investigation of certain defendants named in last year's indictment but not indicted at this time, as well as others not named in either indictment.

Included in the indictment are six from Southern California:

Herman Max Schwinn, Los Angeles; Hans Diebel, Los Angeles; Frank K. Ferenz, Los Angeles; Robert Noble and Ellis O. Jones, both of Los Angeles; David J. Baxter, San Bernardino, Calif.

Others included George Sylvester Viereck, New York City, and Elizabeth Dilling of Chicago.

New defendants named in this latest indictment included:

Joseph E. McWilliams of New York and Chicago; Lawrence Dennis of New York City; E. J. Parker Sage and Garland L. Alderman of Detroit; Gerhard Wilhelm Kunze of New York City; August Klapprott of New York City; Ernest Frederik Elmhurst of New York City.

Names of those previously indicted not appearing in the 3rd indictment, included the following: William Griffin, N. Y.; Court Asher of Munice, Ind.; Oscar Brumback of Washington, D. C. and Luray, Va.; Hudson de Priest of New York City and Wichita, Kan.; Otto Brennermann of Chicago; William Kullgren of Atascadero, Calif.; Donald McDaniel of Chicago; Ralph Townsend of San Francisco and Lake Geneva, Wis.; Paquita de Shishmareff alias Mrs. Leslie Fry of Glendale, Calif. and New York City; C. Leon de Aryan of San Diego, Calif.; and James F. Garner of Wichita, Kan.

The new indictment alleged that the 30 defendants conspired "with officials of the German Reich leaders and members of the Nazi party" to commit acts "with intent to interfere with, impair and influence the loyalty, morale and discipline of the military and naval forces of the United States."

MAY WILLIAMS BACK ON THE JOB

Last Friday afternoon I had a nice visit with Salvation Army Envoy May Williams who is back on her job. She had been suspended some years ago when she protested against the Salvation Army's "co-operation" with the police department in turning over homeless folks as "vagrants". Her superior officer in San Diego punished her for "insubordination", but his sentence was countermanded by his superior officers. Still he buried the letter carrying the reinstatment order in the files and kept May off her job for years. Recently the letter was discovered and Envoy Williams is back at her old rounds. She makes frequent visits to the Naval Hospital, comforts the boys, feeds them cookies and writes letters for them which they appreciate very much. She looks very natty in her new uniform and her old friends are delighted to help the Salvation Army as of yore.

—B—

CONGRATULATION !

Dear de Aryan:

I noticed in this morning's newspapers that the Federal grand jury did not re-indict you. The papers carried a list of 12 individuals who had formerly been indicted, but who were not re-indicted, and your name was in the list.

Congratulations: also Merry Xmas and Happy New Year, with a Happy Birthday thrown in for a bonus.

I am much gratified, especially since I remember writing you some months ago, that in my opinion, the case against you would be dropped.

I got a BIG kick out of your letter to John Q. Cannon, which you published in the issue of December 27th, conditioning a subscription to The Broom by the Dept. of Justice, upon a sworn statement that they would not use your paper for the purpose of "demoralizing the armed forces".

"You're crazy — like a Fox". That was a real idea.

I'm clipping out that questionaire and shall have it framed.

Your demand for the cash in advance for the subscription, was also a good piece of business. No one can tell at what moment a voucher issued by the new deal mob, may be utterly worthless. Even the new deal cash is losing its value by leaps and bounds. Sign in a meat market here:—

"Liver, 72 cents a pound".

When I was a kid, the butcher used to throw in a half pound of liver with an order for 20 cents worth of beefsteak, the liver being for the family cat.

Again, Congrats and good luck.

Yours, KNAPP.

Please Holler !

The darndest mixups occur both in the mailing list in our office and in the delivery service of the Post Office. Whenever your copy of the paper does not arrive within reasonable time, please holler. It helps us straighten out matters. Always write your full name and address on the page of your letter whenever you write us. Thanks.

Judaism, the Enemy of Christ

By C. Leon de Aryan

I hope you people are keeping a file of The Broom. Especially now. This paper is progressively improving and is a reference book. You should bind the copies at the end of the year. You will find precious treasurers in it in years to come and so will your children.

At no time in the world's history was such a big army ammassed against the Christ as are the armies of the belligerents today. Both camps claim they are fighting for greater freedom. Both camps are liars. Both are breaking the Divine Commandments ruthlessly and salving themselves in hypocrisy. The Word of the Lord prevails and His Law is supreme. He does not want the death even of a sinner. No amount of armament and brutality can produce heaven on earth. That sophistry of violence finds billions for destruction and is always niggardly for construction.

In 1934 Mr. Roosevelt could not find 2 billion dollars to keep the American banks solvent, he closed them and ruined many. In 1942, 1943, 1944 he has found hundreds of billions. Where did the wizzard hide those billions and why? He will be running for re-election. Ask him this question.

Closing the banks helped destroy individual initiative and thrift, ruined many small, independent American bankers and that paved the way for regimentation, for collectivism, for chain banking.

We must dare face the facts and look the truth in the face for the truth alone will make us free, no wizzard will.

ASH and the JEWISH EXAMINER

In last week's issue I quoted the Jewish Examiner, Nov. 19, 1943, of Brooklyn, N. Y. Get your copy and read it over again.

You have been told that Jesus was a Jew, racially, but he never was. You have been told that Judaism is the foundation of Christianity and there is no enmity between the two, that both strive for the same ideal. But the Jewish Examiner strongly denies it, editorially, and calls such people Meshumodim. You wonder what that word means. It is equivalent to renegades, traitors for whom the Jewish law decrees capital punishment. The high priest and the council so pronounced it upon Jesus in Mathew 26: 65,66. And again they pronounced it upon Stephen in Acts 6 up to 7:58, where they stoned him.

Did you ever think of the cruelty involved in stoning a man? The mob throwing rocks! That is democracy. But you say that happened in the olden days, not today.

Did you ever see a Jew Kosher-butcher a calf? He slits the throat and lets the fully conscious animal bleed slowly to death. The same cruelty involved as in stoning, and in New York the Kosher law is state law.

You were told that it was an unfortunate incident that Jews forced the crucifixion of the Christ Jesus and accepted His blood upon their heads and their offspring's; that today Judaism and Christianity are identic in their essentials.

The Jewish Examiner denounces Ash for implying that idea, as a Meshumod. Spinoza was excommunicated by the Amsterdam synagogue and cursed with the most gruesome curses for daring to imply that the nobility of the Christ is superior to the cruelty of Judaism.

The Jewish Examiner is quite outspoken that Christianity is un-Jewish, that it is to the disadvantage of Judaism.

Now what is to the advantage of Judaism? If loving one's neighbor is to the disadvantage of Judaism, a Christological concept which is un-Jewish, and a misquotation full of errors and distortions which have made life difficult for the Jews, then what makes life easy for the Jews?

Fishing in troubled waters where strife prevails? Is that Jewish in contrast to "peace on earth and good will to men", which is Christological and with a vengeance disadvantageous to the Jews?

The issue is clear cut.

Christ stands out as a man and a divine man at that, whose Love of God and fellowman does not surrender even to the threat of death at Jewish hands. He is the enemy of Judaism, today, as then, so the Jewish Examiner proclaims. Then what are we to do?

Root out the loveliest trait God implanted in our hearts and give the Jews their advantage?

Let the Jews supply the answer, but let them not again say that anti-Semites create disunity and spread hatred.

If to be a Semite means to class Sholem Ash, his books and the Christ among the Meshumodim; then, it follows, that to be a Christian you MUST become anti-Semitic, as the Jewish Examiner defines Judaism and tells Ash to go and get baptized, because he is spreading a doctrine "with a vengeance, to the disadvantage of Judaism."

If Judaism is at a disadvantage under the Golden Rule what rule does it propose to fasten on our necks?

Ask the Jewish Examiner, please. I am quoting their editorial.

New York Public Library, etc.
Dear Sir:

In reply to your card of 12-30-43, wish to inform you that I discontinued sending your library copies of THE BROOM free. The paper has not been discontinued, it still appears and never missed an issue.

The reason why I stopped the free copies, 3 of each issue, to your library is because I discovered that certain Jewish organizations and Communistic periodicals, like PM and others, were using my free copies to do me dirt, by misquoting and misrepresenting their contents. I also discovered that these same subversive Jewish organizations have been spending great amounts of money circulating petitions to have me indicted in Washington, D. C., and as a result I had been twice indicted, not because I committed a crime, but because certain types of Jews, labor racketeers, new dealers and communists signed their names to monster petitions.

You must naturally appreciate that when so much money is being spent to put me out of circulation I could hardly be expected to send you free copies to help the subversive work along of terrorizing the free Christian Press in the U. S. A.

Whenever request for THE BROOM is accompanied by the subscription price we shall be glad to do business.

Be assured that we have no ill feeling against you or your library.

Wishing you a Happy New Year, sincerely,
C. LEON de ARYAN.

Those Inconsistencies

Dear Sirs:

To whom would you ascribe the following quotation?

"Those who met Herr Hitler face to face in public business, or on social terms, have found a highly competent, cool, well-informed functionary, with an agreeable manner and a charming smile.

"One may dislike Hitler's system yet admire his patriotic achievement. If our country were defeated, I hope we should find a champion as indomitable, to restore our courage and lead us back to our place among nations.

"The Fuehrer, the great leader of his country (Germany) who has raised it so high and I admire him for that."

These manifestaitons of respect and admiration come from none other than the co-author of the Atlantic Charter, Winston Churchill, in his books, Step By Step and Great Contempories.

Does it make sense that a man who recognized Hitler as a "champion" would be interested in spreading the Four Freedoms around the world? It explains many of the inconsistencies which have puzzled conscientious Americans. For instance, the failure of the United States and British government to protest the Jewish persecutions or to sever diplomatic and trade relations with a regime so hostile to democracy.

(It must be remembered that not only did we continue to trade with Germany up until Poland was invaded, but we furnished much of the steel, oil and gasoline for the Nazi war machine, to say nothing of Japan's.)

And since the war, there are: the Darlan-Giraud deals; the kings, queens, and dictators who are being held in reserve for future use in Europe; our President's promise to restore France's empire; Mr. Churchill's frank admission that Britain means to hold her own; the failure of both gentlemen to offer an honorable peace to the Italian people over the heads of Badoglio; the continued indifference to the suffering in Europe caused by the food-blockade.

All these indignities are the more easily understood when we realize that it is not dictatorship as such our government dislikes.

Freedom of Thought

Dear friend de Aryan:

"Seek ye first the Kingdom of God and His Righteousness and all things will be added unto you."

I am enclosing herewith (which you have no doubt already read) the article in this morning's Times and I notice with glee that your name is NOT among them AND RIGHTLY SO.

The fact of the matter is that if they are being indicted for 1-2-3-4-5 appearing in this article, guess I had better be arrested too, because that is exactly what I think.

What I would like to have you do for me, WHEN YOU GET TIME, is to explain to me, why Mary married the JEW Joseph, when there were so many good men in her neighborhood that weren't Jews. This fact alone gives the KIKES a strong point.

Also, wish you would give me some kind of a clue as to a book or books I might get at the Library that would throw further light on the fact that JESUS WAS NOT A JEW.

Kindest regards,
Cordially yours, — — A READER.

* * * *

My dear Reader:

The difference between you and the 30 defendants is that you think what they are charged with disseminating. There is no law yet on the books that makes your thinking a crime for which you could be jailed.

As to No. 1—Democracy is decadent:—

The Founding Fathers never established a democracy but a republic. Democracy has always been rotten, stupid and cruel and will continue to be so till the Millenium, because then alone the mass will follow the Will of God.

As to the alternative to a Nazi or Fascist form of government, it is as bad as mobrule or democracy. Our republican form is superior, especially if the Bill of Rights is not a dead letter. Those who holler "democracy" as a rule want the Constitution abolished.

2—The major political parties, Congress and public officials "are controlled by Communists, international Jews and plutocrats."

President Roosevelt claimed that the plutocrats, economic royalists, controlled, if elected he would eliminate them. The Dies Committee revealed the names of the Communists, and anybody who reads can spell Frankfurter, Morgenthau, Rosenman, Baruch.

3—The United States deliberately provoked war with the Axis nations, which are seeking only to live at peace with the rest of the world.

That President Roosevelt had given orders "to shoot on sight" long before war was officially declared is historically documented; was printed in the Congressional Record, was published in the Sat. Eve. Post. "That the Axis nations were seeking only to live at peace with the rest of the world", is an insult to anybody's intelligence, again in the light of history. I would call such claim pure Axis propaganda.

4—President and Congress "sold out the United States — deliberately invited" attack at Pearl Harbor.

This is a matter which the defendants will have to prove. Whether it constitutes sedition in time of war to spread such statements even if they were true, again, is a legal matter.

Thought is free, and governs.

The fear of God rules people who think, is what restrains them from committing crimes. People who don't think violate all the commandments.

It is just a matter of opinion which crime is worse, to break the Ten Commandments or to betray the U. S. A.

The defendants claim the President to be capable of both, so now they have to answer for it. Some people think that breaking the Ten Commandments is betrayal of the U. S. which invites war. When one defies God, what sacred rule is left thereafter?

5—Communists, international Jewry and war profiteers prevent an honorable and just peace being brought about speedily.

And I heard another one, namely that the war is being prolonged to last till after Nov. 3rd.

I also read the Chief of Staff Gen. Marshall to have said that the threatened railroad strike and taking over the R. R. by the President has prevented a speedy end of the war. One member on the floor of Congres said that threatening to hang Hitler is prolonging the war because all the Nazis now must fight to escape hanging and will never give in to unconditional surrender.

As to the Jew Joseph marrying Mary. What is wrong with it? Joseph must have been a wonderful man to be selected for Jesus' foster father. Since he was not good enough to be the natural father, but willing to assume the protection of mother and child, we cannot but venerate his memory. Anything good done to Jesus and his family is an obligation upon us who love Jesus.

The idea that just to be Jewish is despicable has no place in Christology. Of course that does not imply that being Jewish gives one a privilege. You must not make the same mistake arrogant and criminal Jewry is making.

Read "Yehoshua" by Dr. O. Z. Hanish, concerning the ancestry of Jesus.

Sincerely, KOSTI.

Perry Grudge Laid to Japs

After victory it will be necessary for the United States to keep a navy strong enough to discourage Japanese militarists, who have had a grudge against this country ever since Commodore Perry forcefully entered Japan in 1853. That is the belief expressed here by the Rev. A. C. Knudten, a missionary in Japan for 19 years, during which he saw the war fever mount.

"Immediately after Perry's entry into Japan, two parties developed there—one which wished to attack the United States immediately, the other which advocated a period of preparation", the Rev. Knudten told the San Diego County Ministerial association in First Methodist church, 1112 Ninth ave. "Both had the same objective. It merely was a question of time."

Japanese farmers and workers opposed war, he said, and business hoped for a solution and sent the Namoura peace mission to Washington despite the fact that the date for the Pearl Harbor attack had been set.

The Rev. Knudten believes the Jap fleet will not come out of hiding until Japan is attacked.

The Orient will demand to direct its destiny after the war, the missionary declared, and the Chinese desire to accept Christianity, but in their own way. He returned to the United States in 1940..

Eire to Intern Nazi Sailors

Destroyer Survivors Face Confinement

LONDON— Informed quarters said it was learned that the government of Eire had decided to intern 164 German naval men picked up in the Bay of Biscay.

The Eire government was said to have decided not to yield to German demands to repatriate the sailors aboard a neutral ship.

It was not immediately clear when the Germans were rescued but it was assumed they were part of the crews of three destroyers recently sent down in an engagement with two British cruisers and Allied coastal aircraft following the sinking of the Nazi battleship Scharnhorst.

Eire is still neutral.

The London Evening Standard said it had definite confirmation that Eire had decided to intern the men although the German minister to Dublin had been explicitly directed by the Wilhelmstrasse to fight for their freedom, on the ground that they were "ship-wrecked" and did not come to Eire of their own free will.

According to the Standard, the men landed at Cobh (Queenstown) Eire.

The Pearl of Great Price

4:20 A M, Peace time Jan. 8, 1944

Dear Friend:

You asked me in your Christmas letter whether the duties of my new office as Ambassador of Mazdaznan were secret and if not, whether I would care to explain them to you.

I neglected replying immediately because I had to devote my time and energies to daily matters in hand and a few lines would not have sufficed to give you a correct insight into the situation. There are Mazdaznan organizations established in the U. S. A. and naturally their leaders are going to view me as an intruder. For this reason I have to be quite explicit and to the point because my authority does not derive from me but from Mazdaznan. A chemist is not a chemist because some men say so, but because he is a master in chemistry and does the work. A healer is not one because the M. D. Fishbein union gives him a license, but because he heals the afflicted who have faith enough in his instructions to put them into practice. By their fruits you shall know them.

There are no secrets to my office except confessional ones. When people unburden their soul to me, because they have faith in my office, that, of course, is kept confidential.

When I was 16 years old I applied for the office. I received very intense training till I was 18 and then was given my first assignment, to defend a Jewish boy who had been unjustly expelled from school. I lost my nerve and failed. That, of course, disqualified me for the office. Fear has no place in this work. We are told to do the very things we fear. Because my attachment to my family had induced the fear of acting publicly, my family destroyed the bond by locking me up in an insane asylum.

Since that incident, till now, I have been training day and night to overcome my handicaps. That will explain many things in my life.

The duties of the Ambassador, or Messenger, is to deliver the package which contains the priceless pearl for which every awakened being is glad to exchange all the wealth of this world.

This pearl is the Realization that there is a formula, a point of contact between Religion and Science, between Theory and Practical Material Life. He who is in possession of this knowledge need no longer fear to practice the ideal truths of religion in daily life.

Today we have Religion that says "Thou shalt not kill!" and we have Congress and the President who drafts our boys to kill and makes them take an oath in the name of God to obey their orders to kill.

This discrepancy is caused by ignorance and fear.

My training was since 1892 to study minutely how the human mind works, how the emotional machinery works, what produces the illusion that one could protect one's country, one's loved ones by defying God and breaking his commandments. I have found it out in the finest details. Now my business is to impart this knowledge to the world and it takes courage and wisdom to accomplish this feat and get away with it in the face of a war.

To acquire this courage and to find the effective way of presenting these religious, scientific, realistic, truly practical, material verities I had to undergo the ordeal thru which I passed while twice indicted and jailed as a suspected seditionist.

But, you see, I have learned my lesson and now I received my credentials as Mazdaznan Ambassador. This means, I can present the priceless pearl to those who are willing to exchange it for all the wealth of this world.

With blessings of health and success, your's, with Love. KOSTI.

Marion Fay's Prophecy Fulfilled

INTELLECTUAL HONESTY

It happend last week when I walked down the steps in the court house. There I spied an old friend. I hailed her, "Happy new year, Jane!" She turned around with animated surprise, "Happy new year to you, de Aryan. My, but you are looking swell. The news that you don't have to go to Washington must have been quite a relief to you."

"They left me out this time, but Biddle announced that I am still under investigation, so I have to keep an eye on that gang in Washington. The White House ordered this mass trial, but before they drag me into it, if they do, there are some things I have to straighten out here first."

"Say, de Aryan, what became of your story about Marion Fay? I am very much interested. I know Marion well and wanted to see whether she turned out to be a Canadian spy. You never finished the story."

"Oh, its a long story I could not give it to you here in a few words. If you have time, where is your car, let's go sit in it and I will tell you. You see, she prophesied that I was over the hump and would not be persecuted, by jailing, any more. Evidently she sensed it correctly, for they left me out of the indictment this time."

"Why yes, I'll get my car. Where is yours? I'll drive you to where you parked it so you won't have to walk. We can sit in mine. But first I have a few errands to do. It will take me about 10 minutes. You wait here I'll pick you up." . . . .

When we arrived at my car, Jane found a place for hers. "I know you don't smoke, but I will. Now tell me about Marion. You see, de Aryan, only about 5% of the people in this world think. It may mean nothing to you, you are so matter of fact, but it means much to me. When I discover one, I want to know them better. Fay is one of the 5%, so are you. That's why I am so interested in you two. Tell me, was Marion a Canadian spy?"

"No, she was not. The feeling I had that I was dealing with an enemy, the moment I sat opposite her at the table in the Cafeteria, was correct. Only her enmity is not against my ideals of life but my method of realizing them. It is personal distrust. I follow the Christ principle in a fashion that I can't compromise with war makers. She teaches loyalty to them because she claims they are divinely inspired to make war. That does not sit well with my concept of the Christ. And since she is not with me, she is against me. That's what I sensed about her even before I knew her as I do now. So I was on my guard all the time, except once. She had dropped her guard and trusted me, then is when I discovered what a wonderful being she really is. But it did not last long and our old enmity returned with terrific violence. She is afraid of herself and is all confused, so she withdrew into her shell."

"I was so amused, de Aryan, when you wrote that she claimed to be 27 but you said that 2 and 7 adds up to 9 and so does 36 and 45 digit up to 9. I think you hit the right age."

"Jane, I was so delighted to find a natural born vegetarian, I worshipped her, and then when she used subterfuge at the first personal question I asked, that feeling that I must not trust her spoiled everything."

"Do you care for her much?"

"I never found a woman to surpass her. Of course, we all are lopsided. We develop along certain lines and are a complete blank in other lines. I noticed this in highly emotional women. They have no sense of intellectual honesty. They will lie about their age, the artificial means they use to create that beauty shop product which sickens me when they imagine I am so dumb and don't know it; they really believe that if they want something they are justified in using any means to get it. Like the way Roosevelt bribed the French officials in North Africa. Of course when one kills people, bribery is a small offense by comparison. But I admire the Christ principle which is exemplified in perfect intellectual honesty, no subterfuge. Jesus kept everyone of his promises, unlike Roosevelt, and gave his life to oppose war against Rome. I admire the Quakers for their courageous stand with Jesus. They wear no uniforms. No regimentation."

"You said she tried to stop you from publishing the BROOM. That was foolish. I like your paper."

"Yes, Jane, the laugh is on you. She said all my readers were miserable morons. She is a horrid snob. I had a look at her crowd, I call them the happy goofs. Her chubby boy friend follows her Pollyanna philosophy and said that he is happy because everything is perfect, while millions are dying and suffering the tortures of the damned in this terrible war."

"That's sadism to me."

"Well he is right. Everything is perfect, a perfect mess, a perfect hell but it does not make me happy. There are people who have a very convenient blind spot. They simply deny what they don't like, that's Christian Science they imagine and are hapy in their ignorance."

"You should have taken them through the wounded wards of the Naval Hospital and let them see those boys without eyes, legs, hands, or part of their faces shot off."

"Jane, I am thankful I could observe how mental acrobatics is not productive of Christian charity. The two are as different as is the moon from the sun. The sun produces fertility, the moon's light is sterile. I was struck with this realization when I was privileged to see it; Christian love is full of compassion. Jesus wept quite often, the historians report, when he saw the misery around him. Spiritual acrobats vault high up into realms of thought, they are smart, but their hearts are callous, theirs is a sterile love. They are selfconcerned, they lack that wondrous sense that beats in unison with all life. They don't feel the sufferings of those around them and are perfectly happy in their narrow orbit. They are happy goofs."

"Yes, but her crowd appears to be more polished than you are at that. You are rough and tumble, de Aryan. And then you are not a rich man. Only a wealthy man could afford Marion."

"I am afraid you don't understand the situation. Marion is a metaphysical instructor. She merely works to make money to be able to do her real job, which is spiritual unfoldment of those who trust her enough to let her guide them. She wanted to guide me too, but she does not realize that my life is outlined already. The play is written for me and for her. All we can do is find our lines and play it out. Instead of decoding her own lines she tried to tell me my part when I already know my lines by heart. The BROOM will go on as long as I breathe. I am not interested in her personally. We are supposed to work in the same service."

"She should have realized that you have worked on this paper long before you met her. It's your job, you could not let us down after you outlined the principle on which you are working. But, de Aryan, are you able to support her in luxury? I know Marion."

"Why should I support her? She has to earn her own. In this work every laborer must be worthy of his hire. You must remember, I am in the Christ service. I am continually giving up all surplus by investing it to help people, and to do the work. I only have enough for current expenses. As long as I follow the Christ principle I am never in want for the means to do this work. She is to join me on that basis, not in personal attachment as a liability. The Christ assigns to each one of us our particular part to play and as we play it correctly, we get the means needed. If I am to be the means through whom even her expenses are produced, naturally, my income will rise commensurately to her needs. I have learned to completely trust in this principle of demand and supply. It works to perfection, but of course, the wrong woman dares not join me on such a basis."

"Then you should be glad you did not get her."

"I disagree with you. In all my travels I have not found a woman who fills the bill as well as Marion does in the work I am doing. And she, too, will not find a better partner for her mission in life. It's up to us to adjust ourselves. We are both public servants."

"I am glad you hailed me, de Aryan, and we had this talk. I wondered what your side of the story was. I have to go now, time is flying. I'm going to see Marion and find out her side of it. Why don't you drop into my office? I will have an easy week of it and we could settle the affairs of the whole world. I like to talk with you."

"Well, if you see Marion give her my best wishes. I am sorry she grew faint like a poor trouper. The show must go on. She knows she is to play opposite me, but she dares not trust herself and allows personal considerations to interfer with our work of awakening humanity to the great opportunities of its Destiny. Jane dear, don't be offended if I say that you'll be completely out of my mind during the week. You see, I have really important things to do. But if you will drop me a line and state the hours when you expect to be free each day, I'll carry it with me and that will remind me to look you up."

"I'll do that, de Aryan, I'll write you a note as soon as I get to the office tomorrow. Good bye!"

RISE OF JOB BIAS REPORTED

NEW YORK— Employment discrimination against Jews is on the rise, reports Malcom Ross, chairman of the Fair Employment Practices Committee.

The Jewish War Veterans of the United States have started a campaign, recently reported by the Independent Jewish Press, to combat discrimination against Jews. They have issued a three point program for employers which would remove restrictive practices.

Freedom of the Press

Many of my friends have cautioned me to tone down the language of my paper and not be so outspoken. I told them to go read the Saturday Evening Post, the Chicago Tribune, La Follette's Progressive, the Washington Times-Herald and other outspoken papers and magazines. They replied "but de Aryan, those fellows are millionaires, senators, powerful figures, nobody dares touch them. You are not in that class".

My reply invariably is that I am as good as the best man in these United States. THAT makes it THE United States. When the law of the land capriciously persecutes one man for doing what is another man's privilege in the same line of work, then the United States is dead. My oath compels me to give my life to maintain the United States and therefore I refuse to sell America short, as Arthur Bribane used the term. My faith is rooted in God and as long as I breathe I'll exercise the same privileges conceded to Demaree Bess, McCormick and La Follette. This makes me a true American.

Wanted! An American Attorney

Dear Mr. de Aryan:

For the last 24 months I have tried to be cleared of "espionage charges'" and have undergone severe physical and mental suffering due to a false arrest, which caused great notoriety.

Lately a Governor's Office has advised me to contact an Attorney in order to bring a suit. It was pointed out to me that it is solely a matter with the Federal Government.

Being fully aware of the fact that most Attorneys are reluctant to bring a suit against the Federal Government, I appealed by registered letter with return-receipt to the Chief of the F. B. I. Director J. Edgar Hoover on Nov. 26th, 1943, however, I did not receive any return receipt from Washington and contacted the Post Office on Dec. 27th. A tracer was sent out and on Dec. 28th, two F. B. I. Men paid me a visit. Their purpose was to acknowledge my letter in behalf of the Chief of the F. B. I.

The F. B. I. Men pointed out to me that at the time of my arrest the F. B. I. had been fully authorized to do so and that the United States Attorney had authorized my apprehension. They also informed me that I would not need any permission from the Government in order to bring a suit. I would be welcome to choose from the many Attorneys in L. A. for filing such a claim. From my previous experiences hunting for an Attorney, who would be willing to present my case in court, I fully realize how difficult this matter is. Some Attorneys showed great prejudice and acted in such hostile manner towards me, that I lost all faith in their good judgment. Others pointed out to me, that it would cost me a considerable sum of money and the chances most likely would be, that the suit might be thrown out of court after going through a lot of expense. What I can not understand is the fact, that we are still celebrating the Bill of Rights, but I certainly did not enjoy the protection of this sacred document.

On Dec. 29th, 1943, I wrote to the Attorney A. L. Wirin illustrating my case to him, however, on Dec. 31st, he replied as follows:

"I acknowledge your letter dated Dec. 29th. I am sorry that after examination of the correspondence which you enclosed, I feel that there is nothing that I could do. Sincerely yours, Sign. A. L. Wirin."

As I have always been a good citizen of the U. S. A. and never in my life was arrested, except for this false arrest, would you know of any Attorney in L. A., who would be willing to file my claim? For your information I like to point out that I never belonged to the "Bund" or any other organization.

Needless to say, I would be deeply grateful for any helpful suggestions.

Sincerely yours.

GRETA ROBINS-McGOWAN.

DISCHARGED TO GET PICK OF JOBS

Mr. de Aryan:

I do not find anything in the quotation from the B'nai B'rith Messenger to indicate that the Government are discharging Jews so they can get the pick of the jobs — so why headline the item the way you do?

Surely you are familiar with the fact that the services are daily discharging several hundred people back into civilian life—Jews, Negroes, Protestants, Catholics, Scientists, and men of every stripe and character. If you check at the discharge points, you will quickly learn that neither race or religion has anything to do with it—the final decision is whether the man or woman is no longer able to serve his Government .

Being of Protestant stock—as attested by the name—you cannot accuse me of being Pro-Jewish, but I might comment on the fact that the Jews seem to be "smart" in trying to look after the dischargees of their race, and giving them a break on their return to civilian life.

How nice it would be if the non Jews would get "smart" and try and do a similar job for the discharged men that are coming back into civilian life. I have yet to hear of any such movement, or even attempt to organize anything. The problem will be tremendous as the days go by.

I consider you went out of your way to indicate your feelings on the quotation in question, and I cannot subscribe to such an attempt. Will you please cancel my subscription effective today. W. P. ELLIOT. 336 C Street.

Editor's Note: There is nothing wrong with the headline, DISCHARGED TO GET PICK OF JOBS. The law and the custom says that the discharged are to have the pick of jobs thru preference. Ask any civil service personal officer. Elliott's other suggestions about Gentiles taking care of their own, too, to improve the housing problem is worth considering and acting upon. The churches should take care of that.

THE CROSS OF GOLD

The Hot Springs Herald (New Mexico) of Dec. 9th, 1943, says that no power was ever delegated to any one to tax the American people for money to spend in foreign countries and adds "There is only one way to meet such lawlessness and that is for tax-payers suits to be filed against those responsible, STRIP THEM OF THEIR OWN RESOURCES to re-imburse the Treasury, etc".

Sound advice but it comes rather late in the day. Truly it is a poor sort of confiscation that does not work both ways. This should have been invoked when the Rothschilds stripped the British of their wealth. A fake report was spread that Napoleon had won the Battle of Waterloo; this forced securities down and the henchmen of Rothschild bought up the wealth of Britain at 20 cts on the dollar. When the fraud was discovered a few days later, the Stock Market should have been closed, deals called off and the money ordered refunded because of fraud. But what did the British do? Instead when they found themselves broke, they married off their daughters to the Jews to get some of their money and power back! They traded titles and influence for gold instead of jailing or executing their saboteurs. The extent to which British blood has been thus mongrelized and the names of the British families infiltrated by Jewish blood is set out in CONGRESSIONAL RECORD of the 76th Congress, Third Session. The Article is by Hon. Jo. Thorkelson and is Part 4 of an article on Page 13 entitled "Steps Toward British Union, a World State and Internal Strife". The list of British families so infiltrated, covers several columns. It is pertinent to note here that the Yellow Bloc comprises about 39% of our electorate and when, thru interracial marriages and immigration, it rises to 51%, the rights and privileges of the white man in America can be abridged or wiped out. This is no idle fear. It is on the way, and what happened in Paraguay can happen here.

That So. American country was once ruled by a pure Castillian stock; when the mongrels outnumbered the Spanish pure breeds, their leader FRANCIS decreed that no Spaniard could marry anyone not infiltrated with Indian or Negro blood. As a severe penalty was imposed for violation, the Spanish strain was wiped out. I recall that the scheme "One Nation from Alaska to Panama" was proposed in order that the vote of Mexico might overwhelm that of Canada but the Canadians got wise.

But the ill-gotten wealth of the Rothschilds was protected by their victims and it is now to be used to establish a United Nations Bank.

Having won the distinction of being the first man to be NATIONAL President of this Republic, he seeks to break another record by becoming the first INTERNATIONAL President of a World Union. He is busy campaigning in Europe and selling himself to the peoples of foreign lands. No doubt Churchill wishes him Godspeed because that International President will be a mere figure-head, all power being centerd in the Board of Governors for who runs that Bank will control the economic destinies of all nations.

de Aryan, De Priest and Nine Oihers Left Out of "Sedition" Case

(Special to The Broom)

WASHINGTON— This "history-book case", listed as "U. S. vs. Winrod, et al", in two previous indictments, will now be known as "U. S. vs. McWilliams et al". It represents the supreme effort of the New Deal's legal bureaucracy to convict those whom it regards as the 30 outstanding "anti-Communist agitators and opponents of political Judaism" in America. The indictment is made to charge them with conspiring with the Hitlerites of Germany to establish a National Socialist government in the United States.

Eleven Vindicated

Among the eleven persons and one newspaper vindicated by being left out of the third indictment is Editor CONSTANTIN LEON de ARYAN, of the San Diego "Broom", and others who were definitely not anti-Semitic, such as William Griffin of the N. Y. "Enquirer", Ralph Townsend, writer, and Hudson De Priest, journalist, of New York, who was the only defendant to appear as attorney in his own behalf.

Whether the new indictment will undergo the same "block-busting" that the others did remains to be seen.

Its appearance on January 3rd—the last day of the October term of court, after months of ballyhooing by the left-wing press—fell upon Washington and New York as a sort of anti-climax, or dud. Most of the papers "played it down". Even the Washington Post, whose publisher Eugene Meyer and "vermin press editor" Dillard Stokes helped bring about the first two indictments, ran a shorter story than the "AP" account. It was played up by the Field newspapers, "PM" and the Chicago Sun.

The pro-American Washington Times-Herald and Chicago Tribune gave it perhaps the greatest space. These two had this paragraph.

> "The previous indictments were the result of the campaign of Eugene Meyer's Washington Post to smear prewar anti-interventionist members of Congress by connecting them with obscure antiwar propagandists and . . . anti-Semites who circulated anti-interventionist congressional speeches."

Mrs. Dilling's Sharp Comment

The Times Herald and Tribune were joined by the Washington Evening Star and the New York Sun in quoting the brave, fighting words of Mrs. Elizabeth Dilling of Chicago, author of "The Red Network" and "Roosevelt's Red Record and Its Background", and director of the "Patriotic Research Bureau". She said:

"The charges are both silly and absurd. The silliest thing is the assertion I tried to help set up a Nazi government here," she said. "That's what We've got here now and what I'm fighting —a one-man government that's run by edict.

"The fact that we have such a government now and that I'm against it is the best refutation of that charge that I can think of.

"My defense is that they are the conspirators —the ones who are running a one-man dictatorship here now. I stand for Constitutional government by law and not government by edict.

"Yes, they are the conspirators. They conspired to pack the Supreme Court; to set up a government by edict rather than law.

"When one looks at the records of their military trials, their secret removals and underhanded dealings, one is not surprised at anything. If they were ever to be tried for putting subversives and Communist enemies in all the key spots on the government payrolls, no jury on earth could help but find them guilty.

"I may yet live to see the day when my very accusers look through the bars from the wrong side for some of their crimes, and that will be a good day indeed!"

"This is a key case. If I don't lick them, the country is licked and freedom of the press and of the country is gone."

Soldier Dennett

Prescott Dennett, private in the army since June 20, 1942, is a tenth generation American, descendant of Colonel Prescott of Bunker Hill, who made the famous remark, "Don't shoot, boys, until you see the whites of their eyes". He won the famous Columbia University School of Journalism's Pulitizer prize, and while traveling around the world was arrested by Mussolini in Rome for sending out anti-Fascist dispatches. He is now stationed at Camp Davis, North Carolina.

New Indictment Shorter

While the new indictment is marked by many of the eccentricities of the previous indictments, it is less than one-third as long as the second indictment.

Mrs. Dilling's famous book, "The Octopus", exposing B'nai B'rith and its Anti-Defamation League, is strangely missing.

Of the 35 organizations, the first 16 of which are German, the "America First Committee" and the "Coalition of Patriotic Societies" are among the missing. Also, the Congressional Record, present in the first two indictments, is left out.

One Count—No Overt Acts

The previous indictments had two counts, one alleging acts prior to Pearl Harbor, and the other during war time. This has only one count, alleging violations of the Smith Act, section 11 of Title 18, U. S. Code of Laws—the peace time statute, against conspiring to cause insurrection in the army.

History of The Cases

The first grand jury was impaneled in July, 1941, with William Power Maloney as special prosecutor, with the object of investigating foreign propaganda registrations. It indicted George Sylvester Viereck. After being continued three times, it suddenly, in March, 1942, swung to the investigation of "sedition", in violation of the court's continuing order. It inquisitioned many persons and on July 21, 1942, indicted 27 men and one woman, (Mrs. Dilling).

One of these men was Hudson De Priest, newspaper writer and circulation promoter, who filed a "plea in abatement" on August 20, 1942, challenging the legality of the grand jury. This practically killed the first indictment; and Mr. Maloney started to present evidence for a new indictment.

As only relatively few witnesses were examined by the second grand jury in the fall of 1942, it is generally believed that, to use the language of the Associated Press, the second indictment "was brought at the request of the Justice Department". It fixed the date of the conspiracy as of January 1, 1933, or over seven years before it became illegal.

In one week or argument in March, 1943, Ralph Townsend's attorney, from Chicago, killed the major portion of that indictment. The new prosecutor, Hon. O. John Rogge, a much abler lawyer than Mr. Maloney, announced in open court he would seek a new indictment in April.

De Priest's Unsusal Motion

At this point Hudson De Priest, as attorney in his own behalf, filed an unprecedented motion, asking the judge to forbid the grand jury to consider the minutes of any previous grand jury. This threw the Department of Justice into a dither. Mr. De Priest thereupon prepared and filed a 5,000-word motion, asking the judge to instruct the grand jury fully on its independence of the prosecution's forces and also on the general laws of so-called "sedition" and conspiracy.

This unprecedented motion had the effect of stopping the prosecution in its tracks. Thereupon, according to a certain radio "lotion" broadcaster, great groups of aliens in various parts of the Eastern States began to circulate petitions asking the President to prosecute the dissident editors, engineers, soldiers, evangelists, etc., who opposed "political Judaism".

The third grand jury to consider the case was impaneled on October 26 and began to hear witnesses, chief of whom were from the over-extended staff of the FBI. (Mr. Maloney's grand juries are understood to have heard few, if any, FBI men).

Armenian "Under Cover"

The secret hearings were highlighted by several days' testimony of the Amenian Communist, Arthur Drounian (Akhassian), supposed author of "Under Cover", a man of many aliases. The Senate is to investigate him and his left-wing, eccentric, slander-book, its backers, publishers, supporters, the Friends of Democracy, Leon Birkhead, B'nai B'rith, Walter Winchell, Victor Riesel, the Daily Worker, "PM", and others. The book smears nearly a thousand pro-American citizens and organizations, including many Senators and Congressmen, but does not mention the name of one Communist. It is stated also, that of all the hundreds of witnesses inquisitioned by the grand juries of both Maloney and Rogge in this case, not one Communist was ever summoned for investigation.

FORM NATIONAL COMMITTEE TO OUTLAW ANTI-SEMITISM

NEW YORK—"Dedicated to the proposition that anti-Semitism in any of its forms is fascism," an organization named the "National Committee to Combat Anti-Semitism", sponsored by several hundred prominent leaders in various fields of American life, is being formed on a nation-wide basis, according to Leonard E. Golditch, acting secretary of the organization.

It is expected that the Committee will work in legislative and educational fields in an effort to expose anti-Semitism, and according to the Committee's statement "make every American realize that anti-Semitism is the problem of every American, a threat to his life and liberty, and TREASON to the United States."—B'nai B'rith Messenger, Los Angeles, Dec. 31, 1943.

Editor's Note: When Jews teach that to be against them is TREASON to the United States, they simply say that THEY ARE THE GOVERNMENT, otherwise it could not be treason. Then they persecute those who say that the Roosevelt administration is Jewish! That's one of the charges against the 30 indicted on Jan. 3, 1944.

WASHINGTON— Rep.
